

Employment Opportunity

Head of Residential Life

The Head of Residential Life will be a member of the Senior Leadership Team and will be responsible for:

- Appointing and leading the residential staff
- Ensuring welfare of Residential Community
- Implementing quality assurance processes
- Ensuring consistent policy application
- Maintaining effective communication between the Residential Community, the rest of the school.

Qualifications & Experience

- Must have a bachelor's degree from a recognised university.
- Must be an accredited Boarding Practitioner
- At least 5+ years of leadership experience in a residential programme at an international school.
- Must be trained in Child Protection and Safeguarding.
- An up-to-date understanding of practice and evidence of personal professional development.

Interested candidates should submit a letter of application and detailed curriculum vitae before June 10, 2024, indicating the job title on the subject of your email to:

recruiting@agakhanacademies.org

Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted.

The Aga Khan Academy Mombasa, a programme of the Aga Khan Development Network, is the first in a global network of Academies, providing a world-class education to exceptional students. Pluralism and ethics are core values of the educational programme at the Aga Khan Academy.